

Summer Assignment: Vocabulary

You do NOT need a textbook to complete this assignment. You can use reliable internet resources for these terms. Know the definition and application of each term below. You don't have to turn anything in, but you will be tested over this vocabulary within the first two weeks of class.

Amendment	Legislative branch
Amicus curiae brief	Liberal (political ideology)
Bicameral	Limited Government
Bill of Rights	Lobbying
Bureaucracy	Mandate
Commerce	Pocket Veto
Compromise	Politics
Confederation	Political party
Congress	Popular Sovereignty
Connecticut (Great) Compromise	Precedent
Conservative (political ideology)	Quorum
Constitution	Ratify
Delegate	Republic
Democracy	Resolution
Due Process	Revenue
Egalitarian	Senate
Entitlement spending	Stare decisis
Enumerated Powers	Suffrage
Executive branch	Unicameral
Federalism	Veto
Filibuster	Writ of certiorari
House of Representatives	Writ of habeas corpus
Ideology	Writ of mandamus
Implied Powers
Incumbent
Interest group
Judicial branch
Judicial review
Jurisdiction
Laissez-Faire	