Language and Lattes provides an opportunity for students who strive to be fluent in a language to practice outside the boundaries of class. Language and Lattes pairs students with similar language experiences to meet and practice the communication skills necessary for mastering a language. Minimal language experience is required. Similar to pen pals, partners may discuss topics that they would discuss in their daily lives, so they can start participating in real-world conversations. Partners will practice their speaking and listening skills and may provide each other with feedback for improvement upon their next meeting.
Leadership by Design	A. Oberto	aoberto@psdschools.org	205	3 rd & 4 th Quarter/Daily	Period 4
What does it take to be a leader in today's society? "Leadership by Design" addresses that question by helping students (10th - 12th grade) define what is important to them, applying past lessons in leadership to their lives and developing their own leadership style. Students explore this topic by analyzing examples of historical leadership, business leadership and sports leadership. At FRHS, students will engage these lessons through Project-Based Learning that empowers them to identify social issues and to improve those issues through design thinking, video production, writing, and social media work. Students will work to plan and put on an assembly at the end of the school year.
Lego Club	R. Herhager	rherhager@psdschools.org	N-103	Friday	Lunch
LEGO club meets in N103 on Fridays at lunch. We have a HUGE collection of LEGO pieces and offer free building time as well as builds with specific goals in mind. Our atmosphere is casual (come as often as you wish), welcoming and fun! If you have not checked out the model of the school in the Main Office for inspiration, be sure to check it out!
